

Cheyenne McDougall

📍 Fort Collins, Colorado, United States ✉ cheyenne.mcdougall@yahoo.com 📞 203-841-7887 🌐 in/cheymcd

EXPERIENCE

GIS Analyst

Xentity

January 2022 - Present, Denver, CO

- Supporting multiple Forest Service projects on the National Geospatial Services contract with the U.S. Forest Service for the Geospatial Technology and Applications Center (GTAC) as well as Regional projects.
- Managed teams of 10+ people for weekly project meetings, task delegations, and worksessions
- Experience supporting data development, inventory, and analysis activities across projects
- Interfacing and working directly with project SMEs and stakeholders

Small Business Owner

Scout's Silver

November 2020 - Present, Fort Collins, CO

- Founded a small business upcycling silverware built on the principles of reducing waste, using secondhand materials, and maintaining a small carbon footprint.
- Fulfilled 700+ orders. Recognized for outstanding craftsmanship and customer service through 100+ 5-star reviews.
- Anticipate and fulfill varying customer needs and requests to ensure high customer satisfaction.
- Organize bookkeeping and record keeping for expenses and profit.
- Manage advertising and marketing across four social platforms that appeal to different age groups.

GIS Analyst

RedCastle Resources

February 2021 - December 2022, Denver, CO

- Managed a GeoTASC Project that supports Environmental Analysis and Decision Making (EADM) efforts by creating a toolbox for improved alternative analysis of road networks and logging systems in Region 4.
- Diagnosed, troubleshooted, and resolved over 500 tickets on the GIS Help Desk related to software, workflow, and technical GIS issues. Consistently receive outstanding client feedback regarding professionalism and technical expertise.
- Instructed 20+ GIS training ranging from 1-6 hours to groups of 10-100 participants. Excel in effectively communicating complex geospatial topics to individuals or groups with varying backgrounds.
- Developed a 3-hour ArcGIS Online training. Designed a lecture, demonstration, and exercise to teach users how to prepare a web map for offline use.

GIS Tutor

Self Employed

March 2020 - June 2021, Fort Collins, CO

- Explained and clarified complex GIS concepts in lay terms to 3 students with varying learning styles.
- Mentored students in concepts including editing and storing of spatial data, editing attributes/feature classes, using spatial data to solve complex problems, and proper cartographic principles.
- Identified errors in workflow and provided proper feedback in order to ensure successful outcomes for students on lab activities and projects.

GIS Technician

CACI

May 2020 - February 2021, Fort Collins, CO

- Interpreted, created, and edited a multitude of geographic features using remotely sensed data to produce high quality geospatial data in a timely fashion.
 - Identified data inconsistencies/map errors and update attributes, resulting in accurately digitized data.
 - Utilized an array of ESRI/custom tools in order to manipulate spatial data and problem solve complex GIS situations.
 - Responsible for dealing with confidential data and information.
-

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Sustainability Studies

Minor in Biology • University of Northern Colorado • Greeley, Colorado • 2020

SKILLS

- Excellent communication skills for presentation, verbal, and written
- Strong project management and organizational abilities
- Works well in team settings
- Time management